

Hill Country Destinations

Holiday Destination

The central plain of Sri Lanka is known for its mind-blowing scenery and cool climate that gives away the vibes of an English country village. Saturated with tea plantations, rolling hills, cascading waterfalls, crystal clear water streams and cut flowers and vegetable farms, the area attracts tourists in thousands throughout the year. The English styled bungalows, with rose gardens and modern luxury hotels, will promise you a comfortable stay during your stay. Hiking and trekking is another popular activity to try when you are in the hill country. Nuwara Eliya, Ella, Hatton, Kandy, Haputale, Badulla and Bandarawela are some of the top cities in the hill country that worth a visit.

Top Destinations

Badulla

Badulla is a district and a city in Sri Lanka's Uva Province. It is located in the island's middle hill area and is recognized for its scenic landscapes, tea plantations, historical landmarks, and natural features. Here are some important facts about Badulla:

Badulla, like all of Sri Lanka's central hill area, is surrounded by luxuriant tea plantations. These plantations not only benefit the local economy, but they also provide tourists with the opportunity to learn about the tea-making process and enjoy breathtaking vistas of rolling hills covered with tea bushes.

Things To Do

Hotels